Olivet Chapel—the first Church building on the present site

THE ORGANIZATION AND HISTORY OF THE

Olivet Presbyterian Church

EASTON, PENNSYLVANIA

The Olivet Presbyterian Church celebrates its fiftieth anniversary in the year 1949, but its beginnings go back almost seventy years when on June 1, 1881, a Mission Sunday-school of the old First Presbyterian Church was started in the Twelfth Street Firehouse. The aim of the new school was expressed thus: "to supply Sunday-school advantages to the more than twenty Presbyterian families living west of the Court House."

The offering on the first Sunday was given to missions. This was made a monthly rite. The three-fold foundation of faith to go ahead, plus consecration of money and faithful toil resulted seven years later in the building of a chapel at Twelfth and Northampton Streets on land bought through shares raised by the Sunday-school and additional land and houses given by Mrs. Young and her sister Mrs. Titus, members of the First Church.

Eighteen years after the Sunday-school was started, in February, 1899, the young people of the Christian Endeavor Society circulated a petition to be presented to the First Church, asking permission to withdraw from the parent church to form a new congregation. This petition, signed by fifty-five members, was finally granted. The first minutes of the Olivet Church stated that "Presbytery appointed May 11, 1899, as the time for the organization of the church," and on that date twenty-five more persons were received from other churches and on confession of faith, making the total membership eighty. Of this number, these are still active at Olivet: Mrs. E. E. Horn, Miss Mae Hunt, Mrs. Jennie Klinger, Miss Grace D. Reimer, Mrs. Harry Short, and Mrs. Samuel Werkheiser.

Rev. Harvey Klaer, who had been an ardent worker in the Olivet Chapel during his student years at Lafayette College, was elected the first pastor and was ordained and installed on May 22, 1899. During his pastorate imperative need for a new building led to the construction of the present edifice. It was dedicated October 13, 1904.

While building operations were in progress the congregation met in Vanderveer Hall, Ninth and Washington Streets. The old chapel was sold to another religious body and was moved to Alpha, New Jersey.

Mr. Klaer was an outstanding leader of young people and trained many who later became leaders in church work. After almost fifteen years, he resigned and was succeeded by Rev. John E. Flemming.

Mr. Flemming inaugurated a vigorous and successful campaign for the reduction of the church debt. He was a leader in the city-wide Anderson evangelistic services, and also organized several youth groups.

During World War I Mr. Flemming was given a year's leave of absence to serve as a Y. M. C. A. secretary in France. After his return he served as pastor five years more, resigning after nine and a half years at Olivet. Mr. Flemming died while serving the Arlington Ave. Presbyterian Church, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Rev. DeForest Wade was appointed as supply during 1918, and on Mr. Flemming's resignation was called as pastor, serving for eleven years. Large accessions to the church membership were made and the church grew under his spiritual leadership. The missionary societies, Pastor's Aid and C. E. societies and Boy Scouts continued to be important factors in the work of the church.

On the resignation of Mr. Wade, Rev. William F. McClain was elected pastor in 1935. The daily Vacation Bible School under his leadership became an important factor in the religious training of the youth of the church. The organization known as the 75 Club gave the younger married couples the opportunity of serving the church together in the various activities of their group. Mr. McClain also inaugurated the annual May missionary rally of the church bringing the church family together at supper and at church services at which outstanding missionary leaders bring fresh inspiration.

In September, 1942, Mr. McClain resigned to become a chaplain in the Navy, serving in the Pacific area, and receiving government citations for outstanding service under enemy fire.

In December, 1942, the church called its present pastor, Rev. Robert A. Allen. The church debt has been entirely liquidated and the mortgage burned in October, 1947. The faithful work of the missionary societies through the years has had tangible expression in "adopting" the Rev. Forest Conser of Vengurla, India, as the representative of Olivet abroad.

Mr. Allen is actively interested in all the organizations of the church and has been a leader at youth and missionary conferences. Church and pastor have been honored in having Mr. Allen serve as part time instructor in philosophy at Lafayette College, and being chosen as a delegate to Synod and General Assembly. For the past five years he has served as permanent clerk of Lehigh Presbytery. In the past seven years, the membership has grown from 463 to 661.

In a brief outline of the history of Olivet there can be no roll-call of the long line of faithful workers, both in the church militant and church triumphant who have witnessed to the saving and keeping power of Jesus Christ, the great Head of the Church.

Our Church Policy

I. It is the mission of The Whole Church to give the gospel to The Whole World.

II. This entire Church being A Missionary Society, each member of The Body is under convenant to help fulfill the will of The Head: to give the gospel to every creature.

III. Every Christian is commanded to "Go," if not in person, then potentially having a share by gift and prayer in supporting A Parish Abroad. as well as The Parish at Home.

IV. Our Giving should be An Act of Worship (Prov. 3:9), Cheerful (II Cor. 9:7), and according to the Rule of Three (I Cor. 16:2):

Individually	"Let every one of you
Systematically	Lay by him in store on the first day of the week
Proportionately	As God hath prospered him."

I love Thy kingdom, Lord,
The house of Thine abode,
The Church our blest Redeemer saved
With His own precious blood.

I love Thy Church, O God:
Her walls before Thee stand,
Dear as the apple of Thine eye,
And graven on Thy hand.

For her my tears shall fall,
For her my prayers ascend;
To her my cares and toils be given,
'Til toils and cares shall end.

Beyond my highest joy
I prize her heavenly ways,
Her sweet communion, solemn vows,
Her hymns of love and praise.

—Rev. Timothy Dwight.
